Notes and Chat History, Project Planning

Notes

Planning, planning, planning ahead
Figuring out who are the target audiences beginning and an end / duration determined / a specific time period project outcomes/goals budget
Identifying team member deliverables LONG TERM SUSTAINABILITY!!!! what resources (funding, staffing, tools) are needed to complete the project realistic expectations clear leader
contingency planning achievable milestones
how will project progress be tracked and recorded Institutional/Administrative support predicting technical challenges

Chat History

Angela Kipp: What do you think are the key elements that define a project?

Sachiko Iwabuchi: Planning, planning, planning ahead

Mary Girard: There's an endpoint

Michelle Schabowski: Figuring out who the target audiences are

Rhodes: a beginning and an end

Penelope Moon: project outcomes

Sachiko Iwabuchi: and keep evaluating the plan as we go

Carol Creager: goals

Brett Dion: duration determined
Carol Creager: budget

Dee Gallo: Dee Gallo: a specific time period

Wofford: scope

Alyssa Loera: who are the stakeholders, what do they believe the scope of the project to be, is there a timeline

Karmen Beecroft, Ohio University Libraries: Identifying team member deliverables

Rhodes: clear scope

Samantha Dodd: Goal, or take away

Cathy Miller: adaptability

Thomas Y Levin (Princeton University): LONG TERM SUSTAINABILITY!!!!

Allison Young: Understanding your goal and what you have to work with Amanda Strobel Wise | Rock County Historical Society: A start and an end date, clear ideas of what the deliverables will be, what support (money, time and people) you will recieve.

Alyssa Loera: what resources (funding, staffing, tools) are needed to complete the project

Brett Dion: anticipating the audience/end user

Hannah Rasmussen: avoiding scope creep

Sachiko Iwabuchi: sustainability - I agree

University of Chicago: realistic expectations

University of Chicago: clearr leader

Cathy Miller: contingency planning

Hillery York: achievable milestones

Alyssa Loera: how will project progress be tracked and recorded (especially for use for future projects)

Purdue Archives: Instiutional/Administrative support
Ricki Moskowitz: flexibility so one is prepared for the unexpected Brett Dion: predicting technical challenges Linda Loschiavo: Defining what you mean by "a successful outcome."
Purdue Archives: Assessment
Robin Grunwald: Needs statement or research question
Mary Girard: Postproject review
Dee Gallo: periodic review of process and goals
Joy Banks: Roberta Winjum: Procedures
Joy Banks: Times Up! Thank you all!