Intro

- Funded by a Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) Digitizing Hidden Special Collections & Archives grant
- January 2019 - December 2021
- Digitized close to 90 hours of raw documentary footage
Ed Pincus Film Collection

16mm B&W

Shot in Natchez, Mississippi in 1965 and 1967

1965 Footage

- Used to create the completed documentaries Black Natchez (1967) and Panola (1970)
- Follows the Freedom Democratic Party (FDP) and NAACP
- Formation of the Deacons for Defense and Justice
- Bombing of George Metcalfe

1967 Footage

- Follow-up film to Black Natchez was never completed
- Murder of Wharlest Jackson
- Check-in with subjects from the 1965 film
Project Overview

- Digitization for Preservation and Access (Colorlab)
- Description
- Exhibition on Louisiana Digital Library (LDL)
- Updated Finding Aid
- Screening Event (Natchez Museum of African American History and Culture)
Description Process

Step 1: Review Black Natchez and Panola.

Step 2: Record chronological summary of events in document.

Step 3: Indicate important times, dates, locations, names, and themes in spreadsheet using LOC Authority Headings.

Step 3.5: Search internet for extra information, especially regarding important people.

Step 4: Repeat Steps 2-3.5 for roughly 298 videos.
Cross-departmental Work

- Digital Preservation concerns
- Participation in the Louisiana Digital Library
Challenges

What we learned:

- Updates to Digital Infrastructure
- Lab work and shipping learning curve
- Pandemic
Outcomes

- Web portal: https://louisianadigitallibrary.org/amistad
- Documentary American Reckoning https://www.pbs.org/wgbh/frontline/documentary/american-reckoning/
- Streaming event: https://vimeo.com/662726224
Clips

- Duncan Park integration
- Deacon for Defense and Justice patrol at meeting
- Charles Evers updates on the state of Natchez
- March to the Courthouse
Questions?

Contact us:

Brenda Flora: bflora@tulane.edu
Christopher Harter: charter@tulane.edu

Amistad Research Center
www.amistadresearchcenter.org
FB & IG: @AmistadResearchCenter
Twitter: @AmistadResearch